

Life as a Refugee

World Refugee Day 2011 "Celebrating Resilience in Our Community"

Come Celebrate the 60th Anniversary of the UN Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees and World Refugee Day 2011.

Friday June 17th: 6:30pm -9pm

Saturday June 18th: 10am -2pm

Join Special Guests Barbara Jackman, Dr. Ayman Al-Yassini and Emilie Crakondji as we take a closer look at the lives of refugees. Celebrate Resilience with the first ever London Resilience Awards, presented to refugee and refugee advocates who have helped to make London a welcoming place for refugees.

Bring the entire family for this educational day about refugees! Join local refugees and refugee-serving agencies in highlighting the accomplishments, challenges and diversity of refugees around the world, in Canada and in London, Ontario. Enjoy cultural entertainment, ethnic cuisine, workshops and interactive displays for all ages.

Join us at the Central Branch of London Public Library.
Stevenson Hunt Room, 251 Dundas Street, London, Ontario

For more information or to register:

Phone: (519) 432-1133

Email: lifearerefugee@gmail.com

Brought to you by:

With the generous support of:

Canadian Accounting & Financial Services Inc. - Citizenship and Immigration Canada
Colborne Street United Church, Refugee Assistance Committee - Downtown London
Islamic Centre of Southwestern Ontario - LIBRO Financial Group - Muslim Resource Centre
RBC Financial - The University of Western Ontario