

THE LONDON BLACK HISTORY COORDINATING COMMITTEE

2010 BLACK COMMUNITY ACHIEVEMENT AWARD— CALL FOR NOMINEES

An OPPORTUNITY TO RECOGNIZE OUR OWN

The London Black History Coordinating Committee will recognize two deserving members of our community, (one male and one female) based on their past and/or present service and contribution to the community, both in the Black community and the community at large.

Do you know someone, a man and/or a woman, who over the years has (maybe not today, but in the past), on a continuous basis been:

- a role model to members of the community
- served the community as a leader or innovator
- contributed their time and effort in helping to make things and life better for his/her fellow citizens
- belong to various committees and/or organizations
- are recognized by various groups for dedication and service to our community (black community AND the community at large)
- is of Black/Caribbean/African heritage (essential)
- currently lives in London and resided here for at least the past five years
- is a good role model

Please forward the completed nomination form to the address identified below by February 12, 2010.

Only one male and one female nominee will be accepted from each nominator. (One may nominate themselves providing the appropriate documentations).

One male and one female Winner will be recognized at the Closing GALA of Black History Month on Thursday February 25, 2010
